SANDS, NAMIBIA

– SQUARE SCARF

I climb a dune and discover the setting sun
that is carving endless new geometrics
in the Namibian desert.

CENTURY GARDENS, CALGARY-CANADA

– SQUARE SCARF

Just next to Seventh avenue SW in Calgary, the Century gardens were created to celebrate the first century of the Alberta Province. Its pools of water are always an amazing source of inspiration, reflecting all buildings and displays around. But who is this new character?

– LONG SCARF

National Music Center is an impressive new building in Calgary; its characteristic tiles cover gives it a familiar face in the East Village, as a new music shuttle landing in the core of the City.

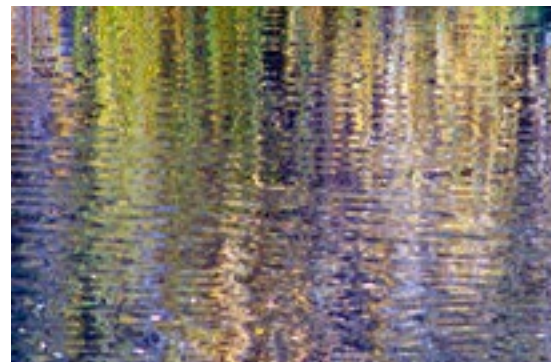

WHIRLPOOLS OF COLOUR, PARIS-FRANCE

– LONG SCARF

The mirrors of “La Défense” in Paris make life dancing like so many whirlpools of colour.

IMPRESSIONISM, LA CELLE SAINT CLOUD-FRANCE

– LONG SCARF

In my search for water reflections, Monet never ended to inspire me; omnipresent, quasi obsessive;
but how not to tremble in front of such vibrations?

THE PINK BUILDING, PARIS - FRANCE

– KIMONO

This beautiful building did emerge recently in the « Bois de Boulogne », in the western suburbs of Paris. For the occasion, it was nicely pink decorated, making it a superb mosaic.

This motif exists also in Long Scarf

HONFLEUR,
NORMANDY-FRANCE

– KIMONO

Sailboats and Buildings do reflect in the “Vieux Bassin” of Honfleur, and this unique collection of shapes and colors creates a beautiful abstract art. Break apart from the crowd with this vibrant yet simplistic kimono, which can be worn for any season to add some flare to your outfit.

This motif exists also in Long Scarf

BRINGING UNIQUE AND NATURAL
ART DESIGNS TO YOUR EVERYDAY LIFE

Jean Michel's inspiration comes from our planet's beauty, as an infinite source of colours and patterns surrounding us, reshaped by light and reflections. While this conceptual beauty can be easily overlooked in our busy lives, Jean Michel tracks it with an infinite patience, carving his unique designs through multiple demanding processes.
